because it is strong, my breakfast is awesome and when I don't eat breakfast, I just have a cup. It's healthy. Earl Grey tea is not natural, but It really isn't bad either, its totally natural. But you can't ever drink it hot. I like Earls. Brewed hot, with a hint of honey, maple syrup, or sugar. Usually, I prefer it steeped for just a bit longer than the recommended amount, often up to 10 minutes. It is high in caffeine, so if you are sensitive to caffeine, start with half a cup. If you are going out, get 2 (or 3) cups and sip on the third as you are leaving. I prefer white tea (3-5 minutes) over green, jasmine, chai, or oolong. It has a more delicate and slightly sweet flavor. White is just flavored with tea. With white tea, you don't get any of the extra unneeded extras like you do with green tea. White tea is made from the same plants as green tea. White tea is not really much different than the other types of tea. Earl Grey is a type of tea made from the leaves of the plant that is named for the Earl of Grey, who died in the
